

My name is Reilly Jensen and I earn my living as a fine artist. My work, mostly large oil paintings on canvas, is represented and shown at Friesen Gallery in downtown Seattle, WA and Sun Valley, ID.

Since times are tough these days and because I love dogs, I've decided to start making dog portraits on commission, but with my own interpretive, contemporary, and playful style.

I start with watercolor and graphite drawings inspired by your dog's photos that you've supplied for reference. I incorporate additional drawings of various canine toys and goodies that spring from my imagination to enhance the background. Then I scan and assemble all the different hand drawn elements including the personalized answers to the doggie questionnaire.

The final piece is printed on archival paper and framed. Voila! Your custom pet portrait, rendered from pictures of your pup's individual mug shots and personality traits.

How To Order:

Step 1. Take photos of your dog. The more the better – don't hold back! Face shots are important - especially your pet's eyes! Take them at your dog's eye level and in good light. If you need to have someone hold your pet, that's fine as long as his/her face isn't covered. Try to get a photo that captures your dog's personality. The clearer the photos, the easier it is for me to try and duplicate his or her personality in the artwork. If you don't have the time to take new photos of your dog, send me what you have. Please remember that a blurred or unclear photo will compromise your dog's features and in turn his or her likeness in the painting. You can Email or snail mail your photos to me.

Step 2. Send a personal check or money order $280.00 (inc. shipping). As soon as I receive payment, I will start work on your piece. When your portrait is complete, I will email you an image of it to show you that it's finished and ready to be shipped. It will take 3-4 weeks to complete your portrait.

Step 3. Answer the questions above and send this form along with your check and photos (if not emailed) to:

Reilly Jensen 501 34th Ave Seattle WA 98122

Final Portrait is finished in an off-white matt with black or white frame. Final size: horizontal = 17"H x 21"W or vertical = 21"H x 17"W.
